The Addison Fire Department participated in a valuable training class this week at the Joint Fire Training Facility, courtesy of the Heart of Texas Fraternal Order of Leatherheads Society (F.O.O.L.S.). "Leatherhead" is a reference to the days when firefighters wore leather helmets which have since become an international sign of a Firefighter. F.O.O.L.S. was founded in 1995 by a group of Central Florida Firemen and its mission is to exemplify the true meaning of the camaraderie and brotherhood that is forged between firefighters by providing them with training opportunities worldwide. Many thanks to this dedicated group for helping the Addison Fire Department hone their skills.

Suspected Car Thieves Apprehended

Last Friday night, observant Addison Police officers noticed two suspects looking in cars in an office building parking lot. When the suspects began entering the cars and removing third-row seats, the officers apprehended them. Unfortunately, there are some bad people out there, so please never leave valuables in your car and always lock your doors. If you see something, say something!

Addison has received reports that a company is contacting residents saying that they have received complaints about Addison’s water and will come test your water for free. This company is also indicating it is affiliated with the Town. You may even have received a packet in the mail from the company claiming to be collecting data for water quality organizations and listing a number to call. This company is NOT affiliated with Addison and we do not have an issue with our water. This is a scam and the company will try to upsell you on a water system.

If you have any questions about our water quality, please contact our Infrastructure Services Department at 972.450.2871 or visit our website here for more information. You can view our 2016 Water Quality Report here.

If you ever feel as though a business is using deceptive trade practices, you can file a complaint with the Consumer Protection Division of the Attorney General's Office.

WaterTower Theatre Celebrates Bob Downs Lobby Dedication

On Monday, January 29, a ceremony was held at the Addison Theatre Centre to dedicate the newly named Bob Downs Lobby. This dedication came about as a result of a generous gift to the WaterTower Theatre from the family of Robert "Bob" Downs, who passed away on July 24, 2016. Mr. Downs was one of the original actors in the Addison Community Theatre where he performed in the Stone Cottage. The dedication coincided with the opening night of WaterTower's new production: Elliot A Soldier's Fugue. Mayor Joe Chow, Council Members Paul Walden and Tom Braun, Deputy City Manager Cheryl Delaney, Assistant Director of General Services & Events Rob Bourestom and Addison Conference Centre Administrator Joseph Tautges were on hand to thank the family for their commitment to the Addison arts community.

Drone Wars V

Drone Wars V is coming to the Cavanaugh Flight Museum on February 3. This event features an exciting 80-ft x 60-ft enclosed track for Line of Sight and First Person View obstacle racing. Whether you are new to the sport or are an expert, come test your skills at Drone Wars VI! To register, call 972.380.8800. For the event schedule, please visit their website at CavanaughFlightMuseum.com.

DFW South Asian Film Festival Returns to Addison

The 4th annual DFW South Asian Film Festival, which will take place from February 8 to the 11 in Addison, will be presenting one world premiere, six international premieres, two U.S. premieres, nine Texas premieres and one Dallas premiere, for a total of 19 shorts, documentaries and feature films over the four-day period. Major programming themes include father/son and father/daughter stories, films with children as central characters and portraits of South Asian families living and working in Europe. Check out dfwsaff.com for the complete lineup, along with trailers, synopses and ticket information.

Metrocrest Services Resale Shop Needs Men's Clothing

The Metrocrest Resale shop needs men's clothes, especially professional ones. The men's selection is always low and many shoppers look to this important community resource for clothing for job interviews and church. Please consider cleaning out your closets and donating to the Metrocrest Resale center at 2661 Midway Road, Suite 207 in Carrollton (southwest corner of Trinity Mills & Midway).
