Council Updates

Council Discusses Strategic Plan for Fiscal Year 2019

During a special council meeting on Monday, June 11, the City Council reviewed its strategic pillars and milestones for Fiscal Year 2018. The Council reaffirmed its strategic pillars and identified ten milestones for Fiscal Year 2019. The pillars and milestones will drive not only budgetary decisions, but also set the priorities for staff in the coming year.

Council will adopt the pillars and milestones in an upcoming City Council Meeting. You can watch the discussion here.

Newly Appointed City Secretary Takes Oath of Office

Addison's newly appointed City Secretary, Irma Parker, took the oath of office on Tuesday, June 12. Ms. Parker, whose first day in Addison was June 4, was the City Secretary in the City of Port Aransas, Texas for the past five years and held the same role in Rockport, Texas for five years before that. Welcome to Addison! You can watch the swearing in here.

Gary Slagel Reappointed as Addison's DART Representative

The cities of University Park and Richardson and the towns of Highland Park and Addison share a representative on the Dallas Area Rapid Transit (DART) Board of Directors. Gary Slagel is currently serving in this role and his term is set to expire on June 30, 2018. All four municipalities have agreed to reappoint Mr. Slagel for another two-year term that will expire July 1, 2020. You can watch the discussion here.

Robert Catalani Appointed to Fill Unexpired P&Z Term

Robert Catalani was appointed by Deputy Mayor Pro Tempore Tom Braun at the June 12 Council Meeting to fulfill the unexpired Planning and Zoning Commission term of Denise Quintanilla. Ms. Quintanilla was appointed to the Planning and Zoning Commission by Deputy Mayor Pro Tempore Tom Braun on November 14, 2017 for a two-year term beginning on January 1, 2018. On May 11, 2018, Ms. Quintanilla notified the Town of her resignation, which was accepted by Council at the May 22, 2018 Council meeting. You can watch the discussion here.

Council Takes Action to Modify Agreement with Addison Legacy Foundation

At the June 12 City Council meeting, the Council voted to modify the existing agreement between the Town of Addison, the Addison Legacy Foundation, and Communities Foundation of Texas (CFT) by removing the Town as a party to the agreement. The Addison Legacy Foundation was established on June 28, 2012 to provide a way for individuals, families, and organizations to make tax-deductible contributions to benefit Addison. The Council approved the Addison Legacy Foundation as a fund of the CFT which is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.

Public Safety

Kids and Cops Spring Cookout Recap

Les Lacs Park was the absolute safest place in Addison to be on Saturday, June 8 when the Addison Police Department hosted a Kids and Cops Spring Cookout. The event, which could not have been possible without the support of the sponsors including the Addison Rotary, the Addison Midday Rotary, and Blue Goose Cantina, was a great opportunity for Addison's youngest residents to get to know some of our men and women in blue. Our fearless officers even showed off some of their dance moves! Check it out.

Business Pulse

Flower Child Restaurant Planned for Former Pollo Tropical Space

At the June 12 City Council Meeting, the Council approved a special use permit that will allow Flower Child restaurant to take over the former Pollo Tropical space at Belt Line Road and Montfort Drive. This popular restaurant makes all their food from scratch using fresh ingredients. Renovations to the existing restaurant will begin this summer and Flower Child plans to open in December.

Chasing the Future

Dr. James Gaines, chief economist with the Texas A&M University Real Estate Center and Michael Cushman, a futurist with the Davinci Institute, spoke to a packed house at the Addison Conference Centre on Friday, June 8 during a program entitled Chasing the Future presented by CoreNet Global. Cushman talked about how new technology will change the way we build structures (3-D printer), drive (autonomous vehicles), and connect with each other, while Gaines spoke about the Texas economy and how well it is doing. Mayor Joe Chow, Mayor Pro Tempore Paul Walden, Deputy Mayor Pro Tempore Tom Braun, and Council Members Ivan Hughes, Guillermo Quintanilla, and Marlin Willesen joined Addison City Manager Wes Pierson and Deputy City Manager Cheryl Delaney at the event.

The "A-Team" Takes First Place at the Big D BBQ Battle

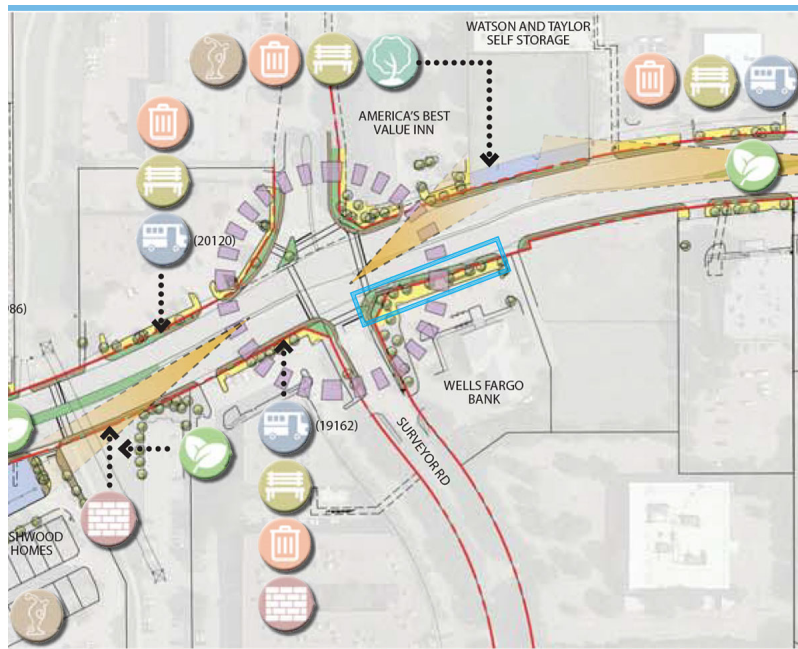

The "A-Team" took home first place in the competitive brisket category at the Big D BBQ Battle on Saturday, June 9. The Big D BBQ Battle cook-off competition had over 40 teams participate for the best brisket, chicken, pork ribs, pork shoulder, and pinto beans. Last year, the A-Team won first place in the pork butt category and their winning streak continued this year. The team donated the $400 prize to the Guns and Hoses Foundation of North Texas, an organization dedicated to assisting the families of fallen first responders who have lost their lives in the line of duty. Congrats to Orlando Campos, Justin Pollard, Phil Kagarice, Crystall Cho, Ashley Mitchell, Cheryl Delaney and Steve Sweeney on their big win.

SCAM ALERT

We have been notified that imposters/scammers posing as OnCor personnel have been calling businesses and telling them their utility bills are past due. Please remember that OnCor will never request payment to prevent your power from being disconnected. Do not give out credit card information, social security numbers, or any personal information to an imposter. Be aware of imposters and follow more tips from this video to help identify OnCor employees. To report suspicious behavior, please call 888.313.6862. OnCor values the public's trust and takes imposters seriously.

Belt Line Road Enhancement Project Public Input Meeting

The consultant for Belt Line Road enhancement project, Pacheco Koch, will be hosting the second public input opportunity for "Belt Line 1.5" on June 20 at the Addison Treehouse. This meeting will be a flexible format where the community is invited to come anytime between 4:30pm and 6:30pm in order to review the proposed master plan for the enhancements and the proposed design palette. There will be various stations set up that participants can rotate between at their own pace in order to gather information about the project and provide input. We hope to see you there.

Are you Ready for Kaboom Town?

Addison Kaboom Town! is just a few weeks away and is already appearing on national lists of the best fireworks shows in the country by media outlets like Thrillist and Southern Living.
