Addison Employees Volunteer at Metrocrest Services

On Friday, December 2, several Addison employees spent a few hours at the Metrocrest Services warehouse packing food boxes (288 to be exact!) that will provide meals to those in need in our communities.

During the holidays, there are several ways to make a difference in the lives of those around you. A list of volunteer opportunities at Metrocrest Services can be found on their website at <https://metrocrestservices.org/volunteer-opportunities>.

9-1-1 Request from Metrocrest Services for Toys and Games

On Tuesday, December 6, Metrocrest Services sent out a 9-1-1 request for toys for its Holiday Program. With 600 families currently signed up to participate, 58% of whom have never used Metrocrest Services before, and an additional 200 anticipated to sign up before the December 15 enrollment deadline, its current inventory of gifts isn't enough to meet the increased demand.

Addison is answering Metrocrest Services' call for help by collecting new, unwrapped toys at the Athletic Club through December 16. Right now, the agency's greatest needs are books and gifts for girls and boys ages 8 - 10 years. You can also purchase toys from Metrocrest Services' Amazon wish list or make a monetary donation here.
