Business Pulse

Addison Hosts Consuls from Mexico, Belize, Japan, and Canada

On Tuesday, March 21, Mayor Joe Chow and City Manager David Gaines, along with Economic Development and Airport staff, hosted Consul Francisco de la Torre of Mexico, Consul Edwin Tench of Belize, Consul Sam Shichijo of Japan, and Consul Duane Robson of Canada at Addison Airport. During the luncheon, the foreign dignitaries were provided a brief economic update on Addison and its Airport. The focus of the event was to ensure that Addison remains top of mind for potential foreign investors and that general aviation travelers from these countries choose Addison Airport as their entry into North Texas. The local officer from the U.S. Customs and Border Protection office provided a tour of their new facilities at Addison Airport and walked them through the process of welcoming overseas flights to North Texas. The group found the meeting and tour very helpful and were better able to understand how Addison Airport can be an option for general aviation users from their respective countries.

Monthly Meet and Greet at Addison Tower

The Economic Development & Tourism Department hosted their monthly Meet and Greet event at Addison Tower office building on Tuesday, March 21. Employees of the various companies were greeted in the morning with bananas, granola bars, and Addison's restaurant guide. They were thanked for working in Addison, and staff answered several questions about the community. Addison Tower is home to Aspire Fertility, Clear Technologies, Addison Transportation, Metis Genetics, and many other companies. Built in 1984, the building has gone through major renovations. Employees were pleasantly surprised as they were welcomed to work by Town staff.
